WORKERS' COMPENSATION NOTICE

And Instructions to Employers and Employees

All employees of this business suffering work-related injuries may be entitled to Workers' Compensation benefits from the employer or its insurance carrier, except specifically excluded executive officers.

— IMPORTANT THINGS TO DO IN CASE OF INJURY OR OCCUPATIONAL DISEASE —

The Employee Should:

1. Immediately give the employer notice in writing of injury or occupational disease. Failure to inform the employer within thirty (30) days after an injury or the development of most occupational diseases, or the refusal to accept medical services provided by the employer, may deprive the employee of the right to compensation.
2. File claim with the Industrial Commission within two (2) years of the accidental injury or two (2) years after the death, disability or disablement caused by an occupational disease. (The Commission's Form 18 may be used to give notice to employer and to file a claim.) In case of fatal injury, claim must be filed by one or more dependents or next of kin of the deceased employee within two years after such death.
3. If no agreement is reached with the employer with regard to payment of compensation for injury or occupational disease, or if a disagreement develops over compensation due, the employee should promptly request the Industrial Commission to hold a hearing to decide the issues. Benefits may be denied if the request is made more than two (2) years after the date of injury or last payment of cash compensation.

The Employer Should:

1. Provide all necessary medical, surgical, hospital and rehabilitation services reasonably required to effect a cure, give relief and lessen the period of the employee's disability. N.C.G.S. §97-25. Keep a record and report to insurance carrier/compensation administrator ALL injuries suffered by its employees on the Commission's Form 19. The employer, or the carrier/administrator on its behalf, must mail a Form 19 report to the Industrial Commission within five (5) days of the occurrence or report of an injury causing more than one day's absence from work or $2,000.00 or more in medical treatment, other than treatment provided at the work place. N.C.G.S. §97-92.
2. Pay compensation in accordance with the provisions of the Workers' Compensation Act for disability. Agreements between employer and employee to pay compensation must be submitted to the Industrial Commission for approval.
